DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(c), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(c) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 17 April 2008 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claim 1 through 4, 12, 14 through 16 and 27 through 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jackson (U.S. Patent No. 4,377,123).

Jackson '123, as best seen in Figure 1, shows a motion reduction apparatus for a floating body comprising:

a plumb plate (13) which is provided on at least a substantially vertical side surface of a floating main body (10), is separated from the floating main body a specific distance, extends adjacent the substantially vertical side surface of the main body, and extends below a lowermost bottom surface of the floating main body;

wherein the plumb plate is supported at a specific location of the floating main body by a plurality of stay members (14, 15 and 21) arranged on the floating main body so as to provide flow sections that are surrounded by the floating main body, the plumb plate, and the stay members;

wherein the plumb plate is constructed to swing (via element 16) with respect to the floating main body;

wherein the plate has an edge section closest to the floating main body that is separated from the floating main body by a specific distance, and an upper edge of the plate member is oriented at substantially a same level as a lowermost bottom surface of the floating main body; and with specific regard to claims 29 and 30, wherein the plumb plate in a longitudinal direction is substantially the same longitudinal length as the floating main body.

With regard to Applicant's claim of the plate extending substantially parallel to the substantially side surface of the floating body, the device disclosed by Jackson '123 meets the invention as claimed. Specifically, as best seen in Figure 3, the position of the plate relative to the side surface is effected and maintained by winch line (28). Therefore, the claim limitation is met when a length of winch line is released effective to position the plate substantially parallel to the substantially parallel side surface of the floating body. Such a modification would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention. The motivation for modifying the position of the plate would have been to stabilize the floating body as desired during use.
